

MEMORANDUM

To: Active and Retired Town Employees, Town Officials, and Other Interested Groups
From: Arlington Contributory Retirement Board
Subject: Informational Bulletins
Date: October 30, 2006

The Arlington Contributory Retirement Board (the Board) will, from time to time, provide information regarding the operation of the Board and other related retirement matters. Future information bulletins will focus upon the following areas:

1. Board and staff member profiles
2. Investment philosophy
3. Protection of retirement funds
4. Achieving full funding for pension, health care and other post employment benefits
5. Actuarial considerations
6. Who supervises the Board
7. Pre-retirement considerations
8. Post-retirement considerations
9. The selection process and the role of the investment advisor and money managers hired by the Board
10. On going "hot" topics of interest to various groups

11. Question and answer forums

12. Performance results

The goal of these informational bulletins is to highlight retirement matters of interest to active and retired town employees, town officials, town meeting members and others who might be interested in the inner- workings of the town's retirement program.

It is expected that the information bulletin program will commence sometime in the Winter of 2006. The Board will be interested in receiving your comments and questions as we attempt to achieve transparency in this most important town function. Please contact Richard S. Greco at 781-316-3370.
